ANOTHER STRIKE OF RAIL EMPLOYEES

5,000 Switchmen Reported Out; Tie-Up In Freight Is Increasing

MOVEMENT SPREADS

Walkout on Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio Roads Said to be Virtually Over

Philadelphia, June 22.—The railroad strikers claim heavy gains in this vicinity. They say 5,000 men have quit work.

The tie up in the movement of freight is increasing. Already there is a noticeable scarcity of certain articles and prices of fresh meats have been advanced by dealers. The news print paper supply is running short and newspapers are curtailing.

It was stated yesterday by strikers that 2,500 additional rail workers on the Pennsylvania, Baltimore and Ohio and Reading voted last night to quit. The meeting, it was stated, protested against the "dilatory tactics" of the railroad labor board over the question of wage increases.

New York, June 22.—The Pennsylvania Railroad yesterday placed a "hold up" order on all freight moving out of the New York district as a result of the resumption of the railway strike at Baltimore and Philadelphia, it was announced last night. No official embargo, however, has been ordered here, railroad officials say.

Camden, N. J., June 22.—The new railroad strike spread to New Jersey yesterday when freight crews on the West Jersey and Seashore and the Atlantic City Railroad walked out, tying up freight movements.

Strikers declared that "no settlement of recent demands made to the Railroad Labor Board" was the cause of the walkout, adding they had receive definite promises that a settlement would be effected by yesterday.

New Haven, June 22.—Yardmen employed by the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad at the local station and in the Cedar Hill yards north of this city, went on strike late yesterday.

Syracuse, N. Y., June 22.—More than 400 railway switchmen, employes of the New York Central and Delaware and Western Railroads, went on strike here yesterday. Strikers predict that by tomorrow not a yard engine will be operating in the city.

The strike threatens complete paralysis of the movement of freight here.

THREE NOW ON WAYS

The launching of the ninth freighter to be built by the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation will take place at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the company's plant. The boat is named the Colin H. The name of the sponsor for the ship has not yet been announced.

The ship will be completed and ready for service within two months it is expected.

It is of the same type as all of the other ships launched by this company, which is 9,400 steel ship.

This company now has three other ships under construction at the yards and work on these boats is being vigorously pushed to completion.

The last launching at the shipyards took place the afternoon of April 2 when the Anna E. Morse glided from the ways.

It is expected that a large crowd will witness the launching. The big yards will be thrown open to the public in order to give all an opportunity to witness the affair.

MME. PECHUSA HERE THURSDAY

Madame Pechusa, the oriental dance celebrity, has just reached America. She arrived yesterday on the S. S. Rjerford, and after spending several hours in New York, proceeded to Washington. Carrying with her letters of introduction from the King of Bohemia and the reigning Sultan of Turkey, Madame Pechusa call on the President to extend to him her compliments, and also to express how happy she was to have the opportunity to take part in the Great Knights of Columbus Minstrels to be held in the Lyceum Hall, this city, on this coming Thursday and Friday evenings, June 24th and 25th.

The Knights of Columbus Minstrels of which Madame Pechusa will be a part on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week, in all events will be the biggest and most stupendous production ever staged in Alexandria. Carrying with it its own scenic artists, own stage hans. own orchestra, own carpenters, own mechanics, electricians and equipment, the Knights of Columbus Minstrels stand out as a compliment to the collective group and as a credit to the community.

As has been stated before, the minstrel is not a copy after some other show. It is original, in its design and every other respect. New and up to the minute jokes, clever songs, exceptionally good end men, harmonious chorus, a mind reading act and a dozen other things but scarcely foretell the great treat in store for all who attend. In addition to the minstrels a snappy rural court scene playlet will be enacted by a large number of the minstrel troupe. The playlet, entitled "Widow Smythe Versus Widower Smith," portrays in a most humorous manner the domestic entanglements of a forlorn widow who has already laid to rest four happy husbands.

The minstrels carry their own orchestra. Remember the dates, just two nights off! The first performance is Thursday evening, June 24 and the second Friday, June 25th.

SERIOUS DEADLOCK NOW ANTICIPATED

McAdoo's Stand Complicates Work of San Francisco Convention

LIQUOR TO BE ISSUE

Two-Thirds Rule, it is Believed, May Prevent Attorney General Palmer From Receiving Nomination.

San Francisco, June 22.—With the Democratic National Convention due to convene a week from yesterday leaders of the party now on the scene are already beginning to reconcile themselves to the prospects of a serious deadlock over the nomination.

Far from simplifying the situation, the professed withdrawal of William G. McAdoo from the race has complicated matters. And this fact, many here believe, may have been foreseen by the former Secretary of the Treasury as a condition which, in the long run, would force the convention around to him as the only way out from an impasse.

The counting of noses has already begun, in spite of the fact that practically none of the delegates themselves have arrived. With McAdoo at least temporarily in the background, the general belief around the Palace and St. Francis Hotels, where the vanguard of leaders congregate, is that on the first ballots the lead will be taken by Gov. James M. Cox, of Ohio, and Attorney-General A. Mitchell Palmer.

Cox seems to be the favorite and, but for the two-thirds rule, the probabilities are that he could be nominated without serious difficulty. The initial strength of Palmer will be largely confined to the support controlled by leaders.

The liquor question looms up at this

War on Explosives

Many Complaints Made to the Police of Youngsters Using Ear-Splitting Devices

At a special session of the Police Court last night a number of boys were summoned for using certain devices in the way of torpedoes, loaded canes, etc., complaints having come thick and fast from every section of the city. The sick and nervous especially were insistent in their requests that the practice be stopped at once. A number of sticks with heavy metal ferrules in which caps are placed were confiscated, and the youngsters admonished.

The members of the police force were directed to notify dealers to cease selling any contrivances intended to cause explosions. A law of the City Council makes it a misdemeanor to sell a pistol of any description to a minor.

The celebration of the Fourth of July was begun by boys about two weeks ago, and as the holiday draws near explosions become more frequent.

The authorities are endeavoring to bring about a sane and safe celebration of the national holiday.

HAS SPECIAL TELEPHONE

A special telephone wire direct from the White House to Convention Hall has been set up and the President talked over it yesterday with Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

Secretary of State Colby called on the President before departure for the convention.

SHAKES $5000 OUT OF RUG

Money Hidden Beneath Carpet Disappears in House Cleaning

New York June 22.—A reward of $1000 was offered yesterday by Gaetano Musso, piano manufacturer, for the return of a tin box containing $5000, which his fourteen-year-old daughter, Antoinette, lost when she shook an old rug in which it was hidden, out of the window.

He had hidden the box and carpet under a bathtub.

SPORTS

The Cardinal Athletic Club team defeated the strong Shamrock nine of Fredericksburg by a 17 to 12 score on the North Alfred street grounds Sunday. Both teams had on their hitting bonnets and slugged the ball hard.

"Speedking" Jones took things easy and was satisfied to win his game he having hurt his shoulder nevertheless he pitched great ball in the pinches.

Teddy Schafer, the premier catcher of the town, worked like a big leaguer and his catching was fine.

The features of the game were the home run made by Windsor Sampson with three men on the bases; two home runs made by Neidfeldt, the Cardinals first-sacker; Jimmy Alexander had a crown-winning day having made four hits out of six times at bat and also a home run; Sullivan, second baseman also had a good batting day; Tetreault, the fleet footed little shortstop played a great game, but he was injured and had to retire.

McCann, third base; Frank Owens, left field and Babe Payne, relief second baseman played well.

For Fredericksburg, Stevens, catcher; Jacobs, pitcher; M. Pitts, first base; L. Pitts, second base; Sacrey, shortstop; Littrell, third base; McCarty, left field Limerick, center field; and Freeman, right field, are a classy bunch of ballplayers and played hard to win. The visitors are gentlemen in every sense of the word. William Entwisle, umpire, was fair in his decisions to both teams.

Representative Moore Tells Graduates of Alex. High School

NAMES VITAL THINGS

Twenty-Three Receive Diplomas of Graduation—Big Crowd Attend Finals Held in School Auditorium

Representative R. Walton Moore last night addressing the graduates of the Alexandria High School in the auditorium of that school, where the annual commencement exercises were held, said that the fundamentals essential to success include a sound body, good character, education and good citizenship.

The reason there are so many failures he said is that the persons don't work to the limit, success that is measured by the old standard is the success that is unmistakable said Mr. Moore, who added that no one is barred from entering, it being open to all. The speaker advised that all of the pupils start a course in reading good books and stick to it.

Conditions following the war he said are about as bad as can be imagined and chaos prevails in Europe. In America conditions are not as bad as on the other side. He however, said he was an optomist. Referring to the high cost of living he said it is true that if everybody choose to make it otherwise it would be so. There is today Mr. Moore declared a perfect riot of expense and the individuals are responsible. The government may prove delinquent, but the salvation of the country is in the hands of the individuals he said.

The speaker praised the public school system and said that America is going to maintain her system of education and keep all the schools and colleges going and if any iron sacrifice has got to be made the taxpayer will have to do so.

Superintendent Sweeney announced that next year Mr. Moore would give a prize of $50 in gold to be awarded as prize for studies.

The exercises were attended by a throng of relatives and friends of the graduates which filled the school

WHAT LABOR LOST IN WAGES.

The figures just given out by the Chief of the State Department of Labor and Industry show a loss in wages by reason of strikes that is fairly amazing. The total amount for the year 1919 reaches $13,-[illegible]3,502; in this city alone it is $1,572,816. Mr. Tracy notes further that there were 484 strikes in all, more than double the number in the previous year. Leaving out of the account the heavy burden of loss which others than the strikers had to endure, the economic waste is little short of appalling. Obviously the direct victims of it, the wage earners themselves, have every reason to wish it had been averted.

But Mr. Tracy's figures do not tell the whole story. The steel and coal strikes, the two largest of all, are not incuded in them. On the lowest estimate the wage loss to the steel and coal workers would have added materially to the total.

It is no exaggeration to say that most labor troubles can be settled without a strike if a spirit of reasonable compromise exists on both sides. As Mr. Tracy points out, "every fight is fought for a settlement." Why should not this settlement be reached before "expensive, ruinous fighting," instead of after it?

THE RIGHT TO STRIKE

Expatiating upon the right to strike in all circumstances, Mr. Gompers observes that "attempts are being made to take from workers the right to own themselves, to tie them to their jobs." In the words of the preacher who was King over Jerusalem, there is a time for everything, but Mr. Gompers, who has pronounced public welfare an abstraction, will not admit that strike is ever untimely. Base is the slave tied to his job. A sense of duty interferes with perfect freedom.

But as is suggested by the Philadelphia Inquirer, "if thousands and thousands of workers did not feel themselves tied to their jobs the work of the world would be very ill done. There is such a thing, after all, as fidelity to a great responsibility, despite all personal considerations. The question involved in a railway strike, for example, is not whether the worker has just grievances, but whether these entitle him to throw a wrench into the whole machinery of transportation. Any number of people work under conditions they do not like. They are not free, as Mr. Gompers would put it, because none can ever be wholly free. A hundred limitations constrain us all. Even if a man's labor is "his own," the fact remains that in a civilized society the privilege of dong what one likes with one's own is of necessity subordinate to the general good.

"The conception at the basis of Mr. Gompers' theory is an exaggerated individualism with baneful social consequences. A man must be tied to his job if he is to do it thoroughly; and the more important this job is the more difficult will be the means of release. A strike at sea is called a mutiny, because it puts the ship and all on board in peril. By the same token, the right to strike on land must always be subordinated to the safety of the community. A worker cannot step out and leave thousands to starve on the ground that the obligation not to do so is slavery. This is to be sure, the very A B C of social law. But when men as intelligent as Mr. Gompers deny it there is obvious need for its emphatic reassertion."

MOB BURNS NEGRO

Enveloped in Flames, He Breaks Chains—Shots End His Life

Savannah, Ga., June 22.—Chased by infuriated citizens, officers of three counties and trackhounds for the last week, Philip Gathers, the negro slayer of Miss Anna Jaudon, near Rincon, in Effingham county, ten days ago was captured yesterday morning near Stilson, in Bulloch county, returned to the scene of his crime near Rincon and lynched.

When it became known that the mob would take the prisoner to Rincon hundreds of people reached the scene to witness the execution.

The negro is said to have acknowledged his guilt. Arriving at the point where the body of his victim was found, he was chained to a sapling, gasoline poured over him and a match applied. As the flames enveloped his body he made a powerful lunge, breaking away from the tree. At that moment hundreds of shots were sent into his body.

Gathers went to the home of Buck Stevens, a negro, living near Stilson, yesterday morning and asked for something to eat. He was given food, and Stevens notified the authorities. Gathers was taken as he was making for the woods.

WIFE SHOT; HUSBAND HELD

Couple Had Quarreled Few Hours Before Tragedy

Fayetteville, W. Va. June 22.—Following the death of Mrs. Della Taylor Bennett, found with two pistol shots in her head and who was first reported to have committed suicide, her husband, William Bennett, jr., son of Judge W. R. Bennett, was arrested yesterday. The dead woman, who was a bride of one year was a telephone operator before her marriage to Bennett, who is a member of one of the most prominent families in Southern West Virginia.

Bennett's arrest followed the coroner's investigation. There was no one in the house at the time of the tragedy. Bennett claims he came home to find his young wife lying across the bed, dead, with a revolver on the floor nearby. The testimony showed that a short time before the tragedy Bennett has sent a young girl, who lived with the Bennetts, to a neighbor's, and that the wife, who was in a delicate condition, and her husband, had quarreled a few hours before the tragedy.

Feeling against Bennett is high and mob violence is threatened. The jail is being strongly guarded.

FOE INDEMNITY

The Allied Representatives Name 30 Yearly Payments

Boulogne, June 22.—Germany will pay a minimum annual indemnity of three million gold marks over a period of 30 years, according to an agreement reached by the Allied Council of Premiers and made public last night.

The plan to have France pay its debt to England in proportion as Germany pays its debt to France was definitely abandoned.

The representatives of the powers reached Boulogne this morning following a conference between Lloyd George and Millerand, at Hythe, England. Decisions of the utmost importance will be reached.

Among the subjects to be considered are the following: The threat of Greece to go to war to eliminate Turkey completely from the European situation. Determination of the German indemnity in its entirety. Relations with Russia.

FIERCE FIGHTING

Heavy Toll of Dead in Londonderry Son of Grand Master Prentice Among Victims

Dublin, June 22.—Fierce fighting was continuing in Londonderry at midnight, according to telephone reports. There has been a heavy toll of dead, the account said, including among those slain the son of Grand Master Prentice, who was a leader of Boy Unionists.

London, June 22.—Widespread rioting broke out in the streets of Londonderry again yesterday afternoon between Sinn Feiners and Unionists, according to dispatches received here.

Many families were evacuating the bullet swept city as looting and burning of houses continued. Police and military were unable to control the situation.

At least one workman was killed today and many persons were seriously wounded.

The fighting was of such desperate intensity that even women and children took part in it. Many women had their hair torn from their scalps by handfuls. The opposing factionists held full possession of the areas in which they fought.

Mails for Dublin and Belfast were seized by masked men yesterday morning. Regiments entrained in the south of Ireland for the scene.

Pools of blood were found in many places in the streets, and portions of the skull of a man who had been beaten to death were picked up.

PUBLIC DRUG CLINICS

Prohibition Commissioner Declares That Hereafter He Will Indorse No Such Institution

Washington, June 21.—Results obtained through the operation of public clinics have demonstrated conclusively that the cure of drug and narcotic addicts through such means is a failure, Prohibition Commissioner Kramer announced Saturday in issuing orders that here after no such institution will have the indorsement of his bureau.

In issuing the instructions Mr. Kramer says:

"It has come to the attention of this office that field officers charged with the enforcement of the Harrison Narcotic law are in some instances making steps looking toward the establishment of municipal clinics for the treatment of narcotic addicts without the sanction of this office.

"The net results obtained through the operation of such public clinics appear to have demonstrated conclusively that the cure of drug addiction through such means is a failure and that hereafter no similar institutions should have the indorsement of this bureau.

"Each of the public clinics now in operation will be investigated to determine whether its practice is justifiable under the Harrison act. In those cases where ambulatory treatment is in use and where no serious and scientific effort is being made to effect permanent cures of addiction the bureau will necessarily insist that the methods be radically changed or that the clinic be abandoned."

FIRST WATCHES MADE

Timepiece of Charles V Weighed 27 Pounds—One Sultan's Gold Watch Five Inches in Diameter

The first watches ever made were as big as soup plates and as heavy as they were cumbersome.

The Emperor Charles V., for instance, had one which weighed 27 pounds.

The watches of that day were very much like ordinary clocks. They were cylindrical in shape, finely chased, and had a hinged lid on one side to expose the dial.

A costly and elaborate watch was made for Sultan Abdul Medjiid by Messrs. Hart and Son, of w bod o in 1844. It was made of 22 carat gold and was five inches in diameter.

It chimed the hours and quarters, but was without a bell, the striking parts being made up of wires.

It possessed a powerful and resonant tone, was exceptionally harmonious and sounded like a cathedral clock. Twelve hundred guineas was its cost.—Detroit News.

DODSON WARNS CALOMEL USERS

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. THE NEW COLORED SCHOOL

A Drive to Purchase Chairs for Auditorium—Seek $1,000

It was very plainly seen that chairs were needed in the new school last Saturday morning when the Hallowell school held closing exercises in the Parker-Gray school building. The large cumbersome benches were used in the assembly room to seat the children. They took up too much seating space. The benches are good, handsome and very valuable, but they take up too much room.

Had chairs been used fully as many more pupils could have been seated and Snowden school could have closed at the same time and place, instead of having to close at another time and place. Anyone who was present could see the necessity for chairs.

We are getting along very nicely with our subscription fund, but we need more money and we need it now.

Ninety-five persons have given and there are about four hundred more who should give.

We heartily thank those who have given and are patiently and anxiously waiting for our other friends to come forward and assist. Will you not help us in this worthy cause? We mean you and your friends Deny yourself a little and contribute so that we can place the order for those chairs.

This school is for your children and your children's children. They will bless you for what you may give.

It will be a heritage handed down to your children. Let it be said that every well thinking colored man has given something to purchase seats to equip the auditorium of his children's school. You will be proud of it in later years.

Names of contributors will be engrossed on suitable paper, handsomely framed and placed in a conspicious place in the auditorium there to be seen and read by future generations.

Give now, please. The drive is still on and will stay on until we get that $1,000. Can we depend on you to help? We know you will. Previously acknowledged, $270. New subscriptions: George R. Turner, $5; Alfred Valentine, $5; Earl Contee, $2; George Jackson, $1; Charles Nickens, $5; Ernest Frazier, $1; Thomas Wallace, $4; Preston Baltimore, $5; George D. Smith, $11; A. D. Cephas, $1; W. point as a factor of considerable influence on the Cox candidacy. On this issue Cox is catalogued as a liberal.

This is to say, Cox is not espousing anything like a repeal of the Eighteenth amendment or a failure to enforce, but regards the Volstead act as too drastic and its principles in conflict with the theory of States' rights. But this is sufficient to put him on the backlist of the drys in general and William Jennings Bryan in particular.

They do a lot of brave talking around here about the elimination of Bryan as a factor in this convention. While it is true that he probably never could control its actions in an affirmative fashion, either as to the platform or the choice of the nominee, the two-thirds rule gives him a veto power that must be reckoned with.

Homer Cummings, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, is trying by every means possible to whoop up the League of Nations issue as the only one of consequence to be drawn at San Francisco, but the fact remains that the liquor question is likely to be an extremely important one here. The fact that the Republican platform ignored it or stepped over it entirely has left the way open for the Democrats to do the same, to be sure, but it is very evident, at least in the opinion of the leaders here, that the Democratic convention will have far more difficulty in following such a lead. There is, and will be, a very aggressive element here in support of a "liberal" plank, and knowing this, the drys are likely to be just as insistent in the other direction.

Getting down to figures, it can be stated on authority of one who has made an exhaustive canvass of the situation in this respect, that it is probable that of the 53 members of the resolutions committee, which will write the platform, 18 will actively urge the incorporation of a light wines and beer plank of some kind. Representing large and populous States of the East, like New York, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania, and of th Middle West, like Ohio, Illinois, and Indiana, and of the Far West, like California, these 18 members of the committee, it is estimated, will speak for about 50 per cent. of the voting strength in the convention.

Thus it happens that the lijuor question is liable very actively to figure in selection of a nominee as well as the writing of the platform.

BURGLAR MIMICS CAT

Chester, Pa., June 22.—"It's only the cat," commented Mrs. Fred Strohm, Jr., when her attention was called to a noise in the kitchen of the Strohm home as the family entered after having attended services at church Sunday night.

"Now I know it's the cat," continued Mrs. Strohm when the ears of the listeners were greeted by a plaintive "Meow" coming out of the darkness of the kitchen.

When members of the Strohm family came downstairs yesterday morning, however, they realized it was not the cat who made the noise in the kitchen, but a burglar who knew how to imitate pussy to perfection.

Mr. and Mrs. Strohm are satisfied the cat would not have gotten away with a wallet containing nearly one hundred dollars and five times that amount in jewelry, besides silverware. And then, again, the cat would not have left this saucy note, found on the kitchen table:

"The old cat thanks you for letting him alone. Besides, he liked the way you left the good things in the ice box. This old cat scratches when you bother him. So you did well to let him alone."

PREDICTS HARD FIGHT

Wood Urges Union of all Republicans to Elect Senator Harding

Kansas City, Mo., June 22.—Republicans who expect an easy victory for their Presidential candidate at the fall elections are mistaken, in the opinion of Major General Leonard Wood.

Wood, interviewed here, urged the union of all Republican elements in support of Senator Warren G. Harding.

"The people are interested in a constructive straightforward policy, not in mistakes of the past They want to know what the Republican party will do. If its policies are reactionary, it will jeopardize success. And no greater mistake can be made than to assume that the fight is going to be an easy one. Its going to be one of the hardest contests in the history of the party.

TO OUR COAL TRADE

Under present conditions our receipts of domestic coal are limited and prices are constantly changing.

We will be glad to enter orders; deliver the coal as promptly as we can secure it, and bill it to our customers on the basis of cost to us plus our usual gross margin, and this will have to be our policy at this time as everything indicates great uncertainty in the coal trade.

Our customers can be assured that we will do everything possible to keep the price as low as we are able to, consistent with quality, weight and service, and we shall be glad to have you entrust the business to us on this basis.

This also applies to any orders we already have from our trade.

HUNG BY FEET TILL DEAD

Pittsburgh Roofer Dies Slow And Agonizing Death

Pittsburgh, June 22.—Hanging head downward from the edge of a roof on which he had been working, Harry Dibler, aged 23, of Wall, a suburb, was found dead. Evidently the man had undergone a slow and agonizing death, with no one to hear his cries for help. Dibler had bee nengaged to complete the work on the roof of a building recently constructed near his home, and indications were that he lost his balance on the sloping roof and slid off.

The building was only one-story high, and if Dibler had fallen to the ground it is unlikely that he would have been injured seriously, but as he slipped over the edge his feet caught in some false work and he was held, unable either to extricate himself and drop to the ground or swing himself upward and grip the eaves. If he shouted for aid, nobody heard him.

McADOO'S WITHDRAWAL

New York, June 22.—William G McAdoo, in a statement here last night declared his recent announcement that he would not permit his name to be presented to the San Francisco convention as a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination had no relation to the political interview with President Wilson published the day before Mr McAdoo's statement follows:

"In order to set at rest absurd rumors and speculations which have been published to the effect that my letter of withdrawal had some relation to the President's world interview, or carried a concealed purpose, I wish to say, first, that I knew nothing whatever of the President's interview until I saw it in the papers, and, second, that the President knew nothing whatever of my letter of withdrawal until he saw it in the public prints."

STRIKE RIOTS COST A LIFE

Score Bruised When Police End Workers' Conflict at Waterbury

Waterbury, Conn., June 22.—One man is dead and two police officers are seriously wounded as a result of a fight between police and strikers yesterday in Bridge street, outside of the plant of the Scovill Manufacturing Company. A score of policemen were bruised by flying stones and other missiles and probably as many strikers received minor injuries.

The dead man was Libert Pisa, 18 years old, and identified as a striker. He was shot down by policemen and had in his possession a .38 calibre revolver with five chambers empty.

Taking of fingerprints gave rise to the Indian passive resistance movement in the Transvaal.
